

About Us

Our priority is to achieve lasting and substantial improvement for our client business. We provide the required knowledge and expertise to assure optimum solutions to private sector. We offer a full service support, utilizing resources from highly diversified pool of experts from Bosnia and Herzegovina and the region.Â Our Activities:consulting and advisory services,development of strategic plans, local, regional and SME development,tourism development,marketing research,marketing communications and development of promotional campaign,feasibility studies and business plans,match-making with potential clients and associates,business development and assistance to SMEs,business restructuring and consolidation,training and education,human resources and institutional development.Our Advantages:long experience in the region,geographical coverage,wide network of consultants and associates,long term cooperation with clients.